PSAT/SAT & ACT TEST

PSAT

This year Klein ISD is paying for all Juniors and Sophomores to take the PSAT Test. The test has several purposes. It provides practice for the SAT. It provides an opportunity to qualify for National Merit Scholarship Corporation's scholarship programs. The format of the PSAT test is a critical reading (48 questions), math (38 questions), and writing skills (39 questions). Inside of your PSAT Student Guide, which was distributed through your English class, is a practice test. You are encouraged to complete this practice test before the test date of October 14, 2009. results from the PSAT are usually available at the end of December.

SAT/ACT

Juniors are encouraged to take the SAT/ACT test in the spring of their junior year. Go to www.collegeboard.com to locate test dates for the SAT. Go to www.actstudent.org to locate test dates for the ACT. You need to register a month prior to the test date so don't wait until the last minute!

✓ NEW!!!! - College Visit Days!! - Klein ISD will allow students to take 2 college visit days per year. There is a form you must pick-up in the Counselor's Office in order to be excused. Come by the Counselor's Office if you have questions.

COLLEGE NIGHT

This year College Night is Thursday, October 8th, 2009. College Night will be held at Champion Forest Baptist Church. Financial aid presentations will begin at 6:00 PM. From 7:00 PM — 9:00 PM you can visit the various college and military booths. If you are concerned about the cost of college, these presentations are very informative and helpful. If you haven't decided on a college, the booths will provide plenty of good information. Over 100 colleges will be at College Night.
